— Neil Peart

I guess when you go off to school you have a lot more responsibilities. Taking care of yourself is one of them. People here expect the Andover student to be mature and to handle things in an adult manner. But that's what it's all about."

To forgive is to love, and loving is what a human being is all about. Never despair for there is always hope and faith. Knowledge is truth and can only be acquired through a desire called wisdom.

Sasha G. Alcott

"And please remember that even if you do mess up horrendously I'll love you just the same"

Thanks Mom.

Toyin Ajose

I, first of all, want to thank my father, mother and the rest of the Ajose clan for supporting and being there for me. I love you all. Secondly, Peace to the brotherhood: Emeka "The Ibo Avenger" Egwuekwe, Victor, Matvei and Fred. I love you guys and will never forget the times we had.

To the ladies in my life: Kirsten, Mari, Shanti, Milli, Marge and Tiffany. You've all been true friends through thick and thin.

To Cathy Royal — "You called me to the edge, pushed me and I flew." Thanks. I love you.

To: Brother Bobby, Mr. Rogers, The Maqubelas, Ms. Walker, Mr. Cline, The Scotts, The Sykes, Mrs. Moss and Rev. Zaeder. Thank you all for your guidance and support.

To: North Side Chillin, The Stevens posse, Stimson, the 1990-'91 AF-LAT-AM board and everyone else that I couldn't mention. Thank you all and good luck. To Steve — You are more inconceivably complex than I ever imagined. I'm sorry things turned out the way they did. Last but certainly not least, I'd like to thank my lord and savior Jesus Christ for being my unconditional friend.

God said: You can win, look within, see your skin, you're my kin . . . and I made you FUNKE! — kmd Odabo, Ando.

So you failed. You're a failure. Then you failed yet again So basically you're a failure. How does it feel to be a failure.

Japuni, I know you love me as much as I love thee. Paulette, ask me this thing? (no sound). Maya, call the FBI when you need to find something. Tahira, I'm most stressed. Katie, Kala, Jess, Tara, and JoJo — take care.

I'll miss all of you.

Joshua Allen

Thank you Mom, Dick, and all family for your support and love. Thanks Jen for TwinTalk, your sis Bart your dancing Scott, and your smile Mark. Thanks for your friendship R.L., A.R., Ma, the Bears, and Stuart. I hope the stupendous shoobadoo I trod upon will become civilized. Special thanks R.L., for the ocean. It doesn't happen all at once. You become. It takes a long time. That's why it doesn't often happen to people who break easily, or who have sharp edges, or who have to be carefully kept. Generally, but the time you are Real, most of your hair has been loved off, and your eyes drop out, and you get loose in the joints and very shabby. But these things don't matter at all, because once you are Real you can't be ugly, except to people who don't understand. —

Act without striving Work without interfering Find the flavor in what is flavorless.
 Enlarge the small, increase the few.
 Heal injury with goodness
 Handle the different why it is still easy
 Cultivate the great while it is still small.
 All difficult things begin as easy things.
 All great things begin as small things.
 Therefore, the True Person never attempts anything great, and accomplishes great things.
 Lightly made promises inspire little faith.
 Trying to make things easy results in great difficulties.
 Therefore, the True Person regards everything as difficult,
 and is never overcome by difficulties.

Duane T. Doles (PG Will Hall)

As you learn to appreciate yourself and we learn to appreciate ourselves then maybe we can appreciate one another but, the truth has to be told. The truth is, according to your own scholars, your own scientists. Mendel said, Black skin is dominant, White skin is recessive. Dark eyes are dominant. Light eyes are recessive. Mendel said, you can get the recessive from the dominant but, you can't get the dominant from the recessive. That's Mendel.

Dr. Keakey was looking for the origin of human beings. He went to Europe but, he didn't stay there long, he kept right on moving and found the origin in Africa.
 Now some of your scholars of genetics have taken the DNA and have traced the origin of human beings back to the Black Woman. Look we are the father of all human beings. Tell it from the mountain that black people are the original people of the earth. That doesn't make us better but, it says, we are your father, we are your mother and you should honor your father and mother that your days be long.

. . . We are telling a manifest truth. And this truth, white people know, you scholars know it but, you have hidden it from black people and hidden it from your own people. So, if you know that you come us then maybe you would respect your root a little better. And if we knew you came from us, then maybe you would respect ourselves a lot better. So, it works for the both of us. It is good to know the truth. The will make you free. Min. Louis Farrakhan — Leader of the Nation of Islam

I dreamed of jagged peaks lining a curving river, with magic moss greening the banks. At the tops of these peaks were white mists. And if you could float down this river eat the moss for food, you would be strong enough to climb the peak. If you slipped you would only fall into a bed of soft moss and laugh. And once you reached the top, you would be able to see everything and feel such happiness it would be enough to never have worries in your life again.

As I look back over the smooth road that I traveled to this point, I would like to thank eleven people that pioneered that rigid trail, and presented it to me as a level passage way. No, I am not one person, but simply 1/2 of the whole. All of my accomplishments were not a product of Yohance, but rather a function of all of your guidance, and I thank you for it. Now I receive my education from another medium, "my children". It has been them that have shown me that we are all born as free children of God. do not succeed in changing things according to our desire, but gradually desire changes. The situation that we hoped to change because it was terrible becomes unimportant. We have not managed to surmount the obstacle, as we were absolutely determined to do, but life has taken us and it, led us past it, and then if we turn round to gaze at the remote past, can barely catch sight of it, so imperceptible has it become. — Marcel Proust

It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs and comes short again and again; but who does actually strive to do the deeds; who knows the great enthusiasms; who spends himself in a worthy cause; who at best knows in the end the triumphs of high achievement and who, at worst, if he fails at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory or defeat. — Theodore Roosevelt

Jose Pamintuan

Sometimes, in your deepest moments, when your mind is devoid of any worries of the Present, when worldly desires and accomplishments seem to have no meaning or relevance — when your thoughts are focused simply on who you are, what you are, why you are, you finally begin to realize your being. The maddeningly unfathomable concept of existence as opposed to nonexistence finally hits you, as if you suddenly woke up from a horrible dream and now realize that you're in a totally different place and time; and then, along with this realization of your own mortality, your ever-present vulnerability to nothingness. And as horrifying and nauseating as this experience is, it is at the same time thoroughly liberating — the world becomes nothing but a dream, something to laugh at, something to experience only for the moment and to awaken from.

If you smile at me I will understand 'cause that is something everybody everywhere does in the same language. — Stephen Stills, David Crosby, Paul Kantner

The most important things are the hardest to say. They are the things you get ashamed of because words diminish them — words shrink things that seemed limitless when they were in your head to no more than living size when they're brought out. But it's more than that, isn't it? The most important things lie too close to wherever your secret heart is buried, like landmarks to a treasure your enemies would love to steal away. And you may make revelations that cost you dearly only to have people look at you in a funny way, not understanding what you've said at all, or why you thought it was so important that you almost cried while you were saying it. That's the worst, I think, when the secret stays locked within not for the want of a teller but for want of an understanding ear. — Stephen King

Be patient toward all that is unsolved in your heart . . . try to love the questions themselves like locked rooms and like books that are written in a foreign tongue. THE NORTHSIDE SENIORS '91

We, the Northside Seniors of 1991, would like to say goodbye to P.A. It's been tough, but we made it through. We'll miss all of our friends, thanks for the special moments and the good times. To the underclassmen, hang tough, there's a light at the end of the tunnel. To our teachers and mentors, thanks for that helpful push along the way. We came, we pulled emergency showers, we evacuated a chem class, we failed French, we ran for president, we laughed. We hope that we left our mark on PA, just as it left a scar on us. Although no one knows what the future holds, being here has made it brighter. Goodnight.

Bishop Knights 91

Well, it was dope, but I must go! Brothers and sisters, strengthen your minds and unite! The end of the rule of the oppressor is near and we must be prepared. Toyin, Ibo power will never cease. As-Salaam-Alaikum ...

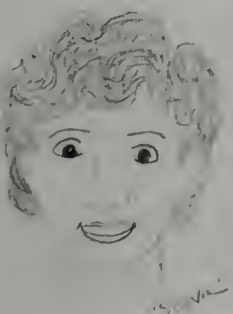

Peace to Northside Chillin', AF-LAT-AM, the DG's and my Jackson 5 posse ... you guys got me through this place! Stay strong and keep the faith. Emeka, every day you and I get darker. Keep the melanin flowing.

— Captain Yoruba

ave recently come to the foling revelation: "Hey, I've en here like FOUR years, n." I'll never forget these 4 ars, the people who made laugh even in the toughest es, and made my life worth le. I am forever indebted to for your friendship and un-standing. You're the reason still here, without you I could e gone ... gulp ... sane!
e, and the biggest Souva
le to my friends, you know o you are.

Mat (vei).

To my four friends and the DGs: There's not much that I can say that hasn't been said already. This place changed a lot of things about me. It was a long hard process and it hurt to go through parts of it. But being with you helped to make it worth the pain (although sometimes you caused it), and I'd be willing to do it again if I could be sure that you would be there.

I hope I will be remembered with a smile. I wasn't in the best of moods all the time, but deep inside I tried my best, I just didn't get it right all the time. I'm sorry if I hurt you, I hope I made you laugh. Through all the work and all the pain, my friends kept me from going insane. To the DG's, the Guys and all my friends, don't forget me, cause I won't forget you. Adios.

We are very proud of you Love from all your family.

Congratulations Tory!
We love you,
Mom and Dad

To Jen,

You have always taken time to care about others and have proven to us that — It is nice to be important but it is more important to be nice.

You have made us very proud. We will always stand by you in all you do.

Congratulations to you and all your friends!

Love,
Mom, Dad and Chris
